

Summer flights to take off:

The four most beautiful routes aboard a private aircraft - Fly for a low price with Wingly

Paris, July 28th - Summer is a particularly good time to fly and it's more than twice as much fun with a private flight: the air is mild, visibility is clear and the daylight lasts for longer.

Among the popular destinations with incomparable views, are the sightseeing helicopter flights over London, an excursion to the Isle of Wight for lunch, a bird's eye view of Cornwall's stunning coastlines or a vintage flight in a Harvard Warbird.

Wingly, Europe's leading flight sharing platform, with 2,000 available flights from 450 airfields, makes summer an airy pleasure and an unforgettable experience for everyone who wants to take off in a private plane.

1. Visit the Isle of Wight for lunch

Treat yourself to a surprise lunch excursion and fly to the Isle of Wight in one hour and 30 minutes. In summer, this is Wingly's best trip. You will marvel at the sparkling blue from above, enjoy the calm air and the clear view. A perfect setting for iconic photos! With two passengers on board the Cessna 172, each passenger pays £222 for three hours flight experience.

2. Helicopter Sightseeing Flight over London

Departing from Denham Airport, this scenic helicopter flight will take you over Central London. After departure, you will witness the English countryside, gradually build up and transform into the outskirts of one of the largest cities in the world! Before you know it you will be marvelling at the seemingly endless expanse of London, with the city's famous landmarks visible soon after our departure. Heading towards the Thames, you will soon find yourself flying over Central London in a Helicopter, with landmarks such as the Houses of Parliament, The London Eye, the Tower Bridge, the O2 Arena and Canary Wharf. With four passengers on board, each passenger pays £120 for the 60-minute flight experience <https://www.wingly.io/en/flights/2002742>

3. The Tip of England - Lands End flight experience

Discover the stunning sights of Cornwall - from its unique coastlines, rugged cliffs and sandy beaches to its rural villages and towns. This landscape is at its most beautiful in summer! Sit back, relax and take in the views with an amazing aerial tour over Cornwall.

This flight departs from Newquay airport before heading down the western coast of Cornwall. You will take a trip around the peninsula, spotting key landmarks such as Sennen Cove, Lands End and Penzance before returning to Newquay via the spectacular St Michaels Mount. With three passengers on board the Robin R3000, each passenger pays £107 for the 60-minute flight experience. <https://www.wingly.io/en/flights/2055961>

4. Vintage flight in a Harvard Warbird

This will be a once in a lifetime day you will never forget. This Harvard is a genuine 1942 World War II trainer, and was the first step for those learning to master legendary aircraft such as the Spitfire and Hurricane. Following an introduction, you will be taken out to the Harvard and shown around to help you appreciate the scale of the aircraft and its 600hp engine. You will then be strapped in and given a full safety brief by one of our experienced pilots. Once airborne, you will fly in the skies over Berkshire and Buckinghamshire like the many thousands of wartime pilots who trained in this iconic aircraft. This selection is a 40 minute flight and costs £665. <https://www.wingly.io/en/flights/2051699>
